

Welcome to ECKART Effect Pigments!

Thank you for visiting our website and your interest in our company ECKART GmbH (referred to as ECKART in the following text).

We are aware that the protection of your private sphere is an important issue for you when using our websites. Hence we attach great importance to the protection of your personal data and would like to inform you with this privacy statement about our data privacy measures.

1 Collection and Processing of Personal Data

According to German Federal Data Protection Act "personal data" mean any information concerning the personal or material circumstances of an identified or identifiable individual (the data subject). If you visit our website, we log the IP address (i.e. the Internet address) of the accessing computer and other general data like date and time to evaluate which parts of our website are of special interest. These data are evaluated anonymously and serve for the internal evaluation of the frequency of visits of our website.

For the rest personal data are only collected if you make them available by yourself, e.g., by filling in forms or sending e-mails, for product or service inquiries or on-line applications.

2 Use and Passing on of Personal Data and Purpose Connection

ECKART assures that personal data are collected, processed and used only to your individual support, to provide requested product information or requested services.

ECKART being a global company, might send your data to other enterprises of the ECKART Group (but only if this is absolutely necessary), especially to the ECKART enterprise which is located in your country or is responsible for your region in order to answer your inquiry. Then your data are processed on computers of this ECKART enterprise in accordance with the local data privacy laws.

You can recall the use of your personal data at any time. We assure that we do not transmit your personal data to third parties, unless we are legally obliged to, or in case of your prior consent.

This website contains links to other websites of the Altana group. ECKART has no control of the contents and the processing of these websites and is not responsible for the data that might be collected by these websites. We recommend to read the privacy statements of these websites if you have any doubt regarding collection and use of your data.

3 Information right and public procedures list

On request we inform you in writing, according to valid laws, whether and which personal data about you are stored.

4 Security

ECKART uses technical and organizational preventive measures to protect the provided data against accidental or intentional manipulation, loss, destruction or the access by not authorized persons. Our security measures are being improved continuously according to the technological development.
